

- Social science

- Chapter 1 Family system Worksheet -1

Family

A family consists of a married couple and their children both natural (born to that couple)and adapted. Family member share a common residence and surname.

Importance of a family

- The needs of the members are fulfilled by a family.
- All family members love and respect one another.
- Family members share the household chores. The Sharing reduces the burden on any one family member and encourages responsibility.

What children can learn from other family members ?

- The children learn good behaviour moral values and skills by watching the members of family.
- They learn family traditions.
- They learn to talk politely .
- Greet guests and respect elders.
- Arrange their books and toys.
- Sew buttons.
- Polish their shoes.
- And learn other family crafts like weaving , painting , jewellery making , pottery.

On the basis of your reading answer the following questions

Q1. Name two family crafts that children can learn from their family members.

Q2. Identify the importance of family members on our life.

Fill in the blanks-

- 1. A family consist of married couple and their _____.
- 2. Family member share a common residence and a common _____.
- 3. We learn to talk _____ from our family members.
- 4. We should greet our guests and _____ our elders.
- 5. All family member _____ and respect one another.

_____ x _____